Colorful illustrations to help students become better writers. In less than 50 pages, they will learn about capitalization and how to use punctuation marks in a sentence, including the period, explanation point, question mark, ellipsis, slash, brackets, parenthesis, comma, hyphen, dash, semicolon, colon, quotation marks, and the apostrophe (and apostrophe s). They will also be taught when italics or underlining should be used instead of quotations and when single quotations should be used in place of double quotation marks. The difference between dependent clauses (also known as subordinate clauses) and independent clauses is also discussed in this book. In addition, students will learn about possessives, including possessive pronouns and possessive
