Re: Evinrude 235 V6

The basic parts between the 175 and 235 are identical and should interchange. They are both big bore blocks with 1 3/8" carbs. The 235 was crank rated, the 175 is a propshaft rated engine. Same thing. The 235 was a very optimistic rating at the time and the 175 is a conservative propshaft rating.
