Price explains a biblical and experientially based method of prayer. It will provoke assurance and confidence that God hears your prayers and answers them. Most Christians struggle with their commitment to prayer and wrestle with a proper prayer attitude and even posture. Price debunks the teaching on prayer that says, “ Sometimes God says yes, sometimes He says no, and sometimes He says wait. ” He teaches how God responds to faith and faith alone, and why it is critical for us to understand how to pray in faith and not in doubt, ignorance, or presumption.

Does God answer prayers? If he does, what is the timing? What prayers does God answer? Does God answer according to our expectation or differently? How important is God's will in answering prayers? This book answers to those questions and explains how important and essential praying daily is to grow and continue our relationship with God. It contains the prayers of many of the biblical men and women and the principles we can learn from them. Also, this book explains the purpose and reasons behind prayer and why it is important in our lives on earth. It explains how prayer helps us move closer to God and spiritually grow and stay in faith with God. This book explains how God was moved by the prayers of his servants and his children in difficult circumstances. It also proves that our God is a prayer-answering God. Also, this book provides information from the prayers of the apostles and church fathers, including St. Paul, St. Augustine, and Martin Luther, the reformer of the church. This book explains the different types of prayers. There is also a chapter on our Lord's Prayer and how he taught us to pray. How can prayer change things, move the hand of God, change a person's life, move mountains blocking the path to success in our lives, and solve life's problems? God's blessings and wonders by prayers are all discussed in this book.

their faith, they became more Christlike and eventually came to be known as Christians. Does the living of your faith draw you closer to him and point others to Christ? If so, could it do so in a more powerful fashion?

Flourish in Faith looks to the epistle of James to teach us how to “grow up” and mature in our faith, and authors Jimmy Chrisman and J. David Chrisman will guide you through those teachings. This study and collection of compelling, inspiring sermons gives you practical know-how regarding how to mature in your daily walk with Jesus Christ, and J. David Chrisman has diligently transcribed his father’s study and his sermons, which were painstakingly prepared, handwritten, and delivered with great care for his congregation. We are all moving toward eternity, and our lives should be a reflection of Christ as we remain on the way to him.

Prayer is a spiritual weapon that God has given to humanity to enable the world to experience His perfect will and glorious Kingdom. When prayer is answered it brings joy to people and glory to God. Answered prayer also motivates more prayer, and generates miracles, which fuel revival and soul winning into the kingdom of God. Furthermore, answered prayer paralyzes satanic forces, and it creates conducive atmospheres for fruitfulness, personal development and church growth. Unfortunately, many people pray and do not receive answers to their prayer because they “pray amiss.” Therefore, they give up praying and just “live”, accepting whatever comes their way. Prayer must yield results, and for prayer to yield results it must be done right. In Answered Prayer, Rev. Martinson Sarfo provides insight into the dynamics of prayer, and factors that guarantee answered prayer. This book will show you how to pray right and receive answers to your prayers.

Lyric poems from around the world is an adaptation of history into literature for further understanding and interpreting ancient and contemporary history. Adaptation of stories in this book is based on Aristotle ' s Poetics—his purgation theory for intellectual and moral purification of the soul. The plot construction is characterized with cultural icons and symbolisms of religious and spiritual practices and beliefs. Lines are constructed to explicate the impact of gender, politics, religion, law, and culture within the framework of comparative literature—philosophy, psychology, history and the art, genre or a literary movement.

Have you ever wondered how prayer works? Have you ever wished you were better at praying? Have you ever been at a loss for words to pray? This is not a book that attempts to answer all your questions on prayer. On the contrary, the author acknowledges upfront that prayer is a mystery for which there is no magic formula. There are Biblical principles that teach much about prayer, and God's spiritual spokespersons have offered insight. But God is God, and prayer is in the realm of His unfathomable ways and workings. Rather, this is a book that invites you to come alongside the author and delve into the practice of prayer. It contains reflections on varied prayer matters that are based on exploring principles about prayer and trying various ways to pray. It is the fruit of the author's entreating

God to teach her to pray. Since much of this entreating occurred while walking with her son through his cancer battle and now as she grieves his passing, the author's insights are presented as one questioning pilgrim desiring to help another. The book's premise is that we do not have to understand prayer to pray. We learn to pray by praying. The more we pray, the more natural praying therefore becomes. Hence, suggestions and tools are offered to facilitate praying. Whether you are relatively experienced with prayer, brand new, or somewhere in between, you are invited to ponder these prayer matters and to implement those suggestions for "doing prayer" that appeal to you. Because, ultimately, while we may not know the intricate workings of prayer this side of Heaven, one thing we do know is... Prayer Matters!
