Michelle Roberts paints word pictures, but they are not pretty. They can be likened to a Paula Rego painting, ordinary at first glance, but with a disturbing undertone. This story follows the lives of two French girls, who were once friends, during the 1930's and into the war years. They tell their own stories, and they are very different.

Ignorance by Michelle Roberts - Goodreads

After every war there are stories that are locked away like bluebottles in drawers and kept silent. But sometimes the past can return: in the smell of carbolic soap, in whispers darting through a village after mass, in the colour of an undelivered letter. Jeanne Nerin and Marie-Angèle Baudry grow up, side by side yet apart, in the village of Ste Madeleine. Marie-Angèle is the daughter of the ...

Michele Roberts, Sally Beauman, Michelene Wandor, Zoe Fairbairns, Justine Picardie 'The Age of Wonder' is Richard Holmes's first major work of biography for a decade. It has been inspired by the scientific ferment that swept through Britain at the end of the eighteenth century, and which Holmes now radically redefines as 'the revolution of Romantic Science'.
