There are a few prerequisites for upgrading to Linux Mint 20. First, you must already be running Mint 19.3, codenamed "Tricia." Older versions will not be capable of making the jump to 20, so if you're on 19.2 or older, you either need to upgrade to 19.3 or go with a fresh install of 20. Second, your PC must have a 64-bit architecture.
